COMMUNITY PHOTOCOPYING REQUEST

Free photocopying is available to recognised community or not for profit associations.

As the office receives many requests for the photocopying services, it is asked that representatives from local groups provide their own paper.

All community or not for profit associations requesting the photocopying service must complete this form.

This document is to certify that the photocopying being done in the office of Mark Boothman, State Member for Albert has been done solely for the purposes of the community group and not for personal use.
