Albert Christmas Card Winners

Member for Albert, Mark Boothman MP, would like to thank all the state school students in the electorate of Albert for participating in the 2012 Albert Christmas Card Competition.

Two winning entries were chosen after much scrutiny by representatives from The Albert and Logan News, Ormeau Lions and the Beenleigh PCYC. Runners up prizes were also chosen by the panel for students efforts.

Mark Boothman MP said, “the creative skills displayed by students was very impressive, the ability and creativity displayed by so many local students was magnificent. I look forward to having my Christmas card printed and sent out with a fantastic design and verse.”

“It was great to present prizes to the two elated winning students and the runners up.

“I would like to give special thanks to Warner Brothers Movie World for sponsoring the competition entitled “White Christmas: A Special Time of Year”. Mr Boothman said.
